

The higher the rat tries to lift toes <sup>operated hind leg</sup> in climbing, the farther downward they go. Attempt to lift foot forward in walking causes it to slap downward along the floor. Prolonged training fails to correct the reversed movements.

Fig 4 b.

~~Amphibian in 2nd part of paper~~

~~5 hours experiment~~

reference only.

